May Week Concert

Selwyn College Chapel

SCMS rounds off the Academic Year in style with a celebration to include Sibelius' Finlandia, Hummel's Trumpet Concerto, Poulenc's L'Histoire de Babar (narrated by Dr Michael Tilby, retiring Senior Tutor), Grieg's Holberg Suite and Vaughan Williams' English Folk Song Suite. To include champagne and strawberries on the lawn in the interval.

Tickets: £9 (full)/£5 (concessions)/£3 (SCMS). In the Chapel, 8pm.

*Please note change of date from Sunday 15th June. The date has been changed to avoid several logistical issues presented by having the concert on the Sunday. Please direct any queries to the outgoing Junior Secretary (vehg2@cam.ac.uk).

All concerts are held in Selwyn College Hall and will commence at 8.30pm unless otherwise stated. Entrance generally £4, £2.50 for students, and free for SCMS members.
